

News & Events

Invitation to the Graduation Ceremony

The Rector and the Senate of the University of Applied Sciences Offenburg invite the graduates of the summer semester 2018 for Friday, October 26, at 5 p.m. to the university celebration in the Oberrheinhalle. [\[more\]](#)

Greenlight Students Returning from Morocco with New Projects

Offenburg University's GREENLIGHT initiative is further expanding its cooperation with Moroccan project partners. A boarding school for young girls and a home and educational center for street children have been added to the...[\[more\]](#)

Neues Semester – neue Studierende von Partnerhochschulen auf dem Campus

Am 4. März (Rosenmontag) fing eine „Orientation Week“ für unsere neuen Austauschstudierenden an. Nach der Begrüßung und einer Einführungsveranstaltung durch das International Office am Vormittag ging es direkt nach Freiburg zum...[\[more\]](#)

WUS Award 2019 for theses on Sustainable Development Goals

The World University Service (WUS) awards theses from 2018 that deal with one of the following topics of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) - Education for Sustainable Development, Global Learning, Human Right to Education,...[\[more\]](#)

Technology for industry 4.0

“Predictive Maintenance” research project at Offenburg University of Applied Sciences successfully applies for funding from the Carl Zeiss Foundation to the tune of 750,000 euros.[\[more\]](#)

New Cooperation with Aman Union

The Department of Business and Industrial Engineering is launching a new online training program with the Aman Union. [\[more\]](#)

Hochschule Offenburg Successful at Latest CHE Ranking

According to the latest CHE university ranking, Offenburg is a leading university with respect to its students gaining practical experience during their academic studies. The Hochschule scored particularly well in the ranked...[\[more\]](#)

